Meet the Candidates for the New Board of Directors

Jeff Dyer

Jeff Dyer has over 25 years of leadership in the non-profit sector, advancing initiatives in poverty reduction, affordable housing, youth development, and ending homelessness, and currently serves as CEO of Trellis Society, where he is committed to building inclusive communities. He holds a Bachelor of Education and an MBA from the University of Alberta, and brings a values-driven approach that aligns organizational vision with meaningful social impact. Jeff serves on the boards of Futurepreneur Foundation of Canada and A Way Home Canada (Chair), and has contributed as a volunteer in sport through youth running, hockey, and soccer. An avid marathon runner, he brings the same discipline and endurance from sport into his leadership and community work.

Nancy Farries

Nancy Farries is the Senior Vice President of YMCA Canada West Regional Development Centre, supporting YMCAs across western Canada. Through her career, Nancy has given leadership to a broad range of operational, strategic, and governance responsibilities. Prior to her current role, she served as the Vice President of Operations and subsequently the Senior Vice President of Association Advancement and Development with YMCA Calgary. Nancy is a long-serving volunteer with the Calgary Stampede and was previously on the board of Run Calgary. She holds a degree in Physical Education and an MBA, both from the University of Calgary as well as her ICD.D certification.

William O'Yeung

William O'Yeung is a Chartered Professional Accountant with an MBA from Nova Southeastern University and a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Calgary. Over a 30-year career with Shell Canada, he held leadership roles across accounting, strategy, planning, and project management. He has a strong record of community involvement, including board and volunteer roles with Shell Canada's Community Service Fund, United Way of Calgary, KidSport Canada, and Escape with STEM. He has also contributed as a coach with Calgary Minor Soccer and Basketball, a Youth Ambassador Program mentor, and currently serves on the University of Calgary's Board of Governors and Senate, and as past Chair and President of the UCalgary Alumni Association.
